(Email from our contact at the hotels including the URLs for each just in case the text hyperlink doesn't fully work in the festival packet.)

Below are the booking links that you can pass along to your attendees to make reservations. If guests would like to take advantage of adding pre/post dates at the group rate, they need to make the reservation for at least one of main nights on the link first. After they make the reservation, guests can just shoot me a note with their confirmation number and the dates they would like to add, and I can modify the reservation from there (feel free to share my email). As a reminder, the cutoff date for the room blocks is April 3, 2026.

I monitor the blocks on a very regular basis and add to them if you are close to filling and I am able to at the group rate, but if you hear of anyone having booking challenges, please let me know and I'll take a peek.
